Eli Lev
The Rendezvous, 78 Third St., 9:30pm
Rising singer-songwriter Eli Lev is making the world a smaller place, one song at a time. Eli pens lyrics and melodies for everyday enlightenment—songs that resonate because they're heartfelt, earthy, and offer the wisdom he's gained through lifelong travel and self-discovery. The Maryland-based artist has just completed his epic Four Directions project which includes four EPs that were inspired by indigenous traditions he learned while teaching on the Navajo Nation in Northern Arizona. His four part EP releases, All Roads East (2017) and Way out West (2018), Deep South (2019), and True North (2021) - imaginatively and intrepidly connect spheres and generations within a body of work that is irresistibly uplifting, emotionally resonant, and down-to-earth. A cross between The Avett Brothers and The Lumineers, Lev has opened for both Shooter Jennings and Lee DeWyze, performed at The Kennedy Center and 9:30 Club in Washington, DC, and toured extensively around the world. <https://www.facebook.com/events/700873868454151>

Friday, March 17

Cinemastorm!
Shea Theater Double Feature: 7:30pm-11pm
Beer. Flicks. Trivia. Free Admission!
RAISING ARIZONA (1987) - The Coen Brothers' madcap masterpiece perfectly blends action, comedy, film noir, and screwball romance to create a hilarious & heartwarming tour de force. Unable to conceive a child of their own, Nicholas Cage & Holly Hunter star as a couple that hatches a scheme to kidnap a baby. RUBIN & ED (1991) - Looking for the perfect place to bury his beloved cat, Rubin (Crispin Glover at his indescribable best) finds himself on a transformational spirit quest deep in the Utah desert. When Rubin drags a disenfranchised pyramid scheme salesman along for the ride (Howard Hesseman as Ed), a surrealistic road trip ensues with both men seeking spiritual rebirth.

Ashley Rhodes

The Rendezvous, 78 Third Street, 9:30pm

Ashley Rhodes (she/her) is a singer, songwriter, and guitarist from Massachusetts. She is a recent transplant to western mass after nearly 20 years living in Boston. Ashley grew up on New Hampshire's seacoast and started performing as an acoustic singer/songwriter in the early 2000s then later transitioned to fronting rock bands once she got her first electric guitar. She moved to Boston in 2004 to study at Berklee College of Music and graduated with a degree in songwriting. While at Berklee she also honed her guitar improvisation skills, which remain an important part of her musical expression. <https://www.facebook.com/events/774622754093605>
