

THIS WEEKEND in Montague and Downtown Turners Falls. Summer events are HERE, people! June 1- June 4.

Thursday, June 1

Travel Series - Ann Marie Rocheleau

Montague Center Library, 17 Center St., 6-7pm

Ann Marie walked the Camino Portugues with her son in the fall of 2022, a trek almost a decade in the making. She will discuss her experiences, both rewarding and challenging, as well as the resources she used to plan the trip before leaving and while on the walk itself.

Thursday, June 1

Justin Rowland

The Rendezvous, 78 Third St., 9pm

Justin Rowland is a singer/songwriter currently living in the greater Boston area, and playing throughout New England. He grew up in a music-loving family with diverse tastes, and early influences include everything from Willie Nelson to the Dead Kennedys. In his teens, spent in the small towns surrounding the "city" of Bangor, Maine, he learned to sing, write and play guitar in a goth-punk band with his friends, drawing inspiration from the alternative rock scene of the 90's.
